

State of Florida v. Rodney Manley

On Tuesday, Rodney Manley was found guilty of first-degree murder in the April 2000 slaying of Missy Cato. Her body was found behind the Rio Motel at 1488 Gulf-to-Bay Blvd. and her homicide went unsolved for several years. Our cold case homicide detectives, who continually revisit these crimes, discovered evidence that put Manley behind bars in April 2015. A jury found him guilty this week, and a judge sentenced him to life in prison.
